Citizens Bond Oversight Committee to meet

The Ellis County Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee is scheduled to meet on Monday, July 13, 2009 to hear updates from Jon Vidaurri of Jones Lang LaSalle and Ellis County Engineer Joe White regarding current facilities projects. The meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the second floor courtroom of the Historic Courthouse in downtown Waxahachie.

The new courts and detention facilities were approved by voters in a bond election in May, 2007. Under an interlocal agreement, the City of Waxahachie is building a parking garage as part of the project, with Jones Lang LaSalle overseeing all the facilities as a single project. Construction began in November, 2008.

Members of the public are welcome to attend Monday's meeting.
